PLANT DISEASES ACT 1924

NOTIFICATION

Declaration of Quarantine Area for Citrus Red Mite

I, IAN R. CAUSLEY, Minister for Agriculture and Fisheries, and Minister for Mines, pursuant to section 6 of the Plant Diseases Act 1924.

REVOKE the Notification published in Government Gazette No. 129 of 8 October 1976.

DECLARE the Counties of Cumberland and Northumberland to be a quarantine area on account of the presence of the pest citrus red mite (Panonychus citri).

AND I DIRECT that no person shall remove from the quarantine area any budwood or more than 5 trees of the genera Citrus, Fortunella or Poncirus unless:

1. it has been treated with a pesticide:
  - (a) registered under the Pesticides Act 1978, for the control of citrus red mite and applied in accordance with the registered label of that pesticide; or
  - (b) in accordance with the terms of a pesticide order made under the Pesticides Act 1978, relevant to the effective treatment of the pest citrus red mite; and
2. (a) the consignment is accompanied by a plant health certificate issued by an inspector, appointed under the Plant Diseases Act 1924, who has supervised the treatment; or
  - (b) the consignment is accompanied by a statutory declaration by the consignor declaring that it has been treated in accordance with paragraph 1.

IAN R. CAUSLEY, M.P.,
Minister for Agriculture and Fisheries,
and Minister for Mines.
