IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Commercial Fishing Licence

Applicants must either be a fishing business owner in a share management or restricted fishery, be duly nominated to fish on behalf of a fishing business owner, be the subject of an application for listing as an eligible fisher on behalf of a fishing business owner, or hold a permit issued under section 37 of the Act to undertake certain commercial fishing activities.

Involvement with NSW DPI

Applications made by employees of NSW DPI or persons in a professional relationship with NSW DPI will be assessed to determine that no conflict of interest would arise through the approval of the application.

Buy-outs: Buy-out schemes conducted by NSW DPI or the Marine Parks Authority may include conditions precluding recipients from future participation in a particular fishery or specified waters.

Refusal to Issue Licence

The grounds on which a commercial fishing licence may be refused are set out in Clause 128 of the Fisheries Management (General) Regulation 2010, and include where the applicant has been:

1. Convicted or found guilty of an offence under the Fisheries Management Act 1994 or regulations made under the Act;
2. Convicted or found guilty of an offence under the Marine Parks Act 1997 or regulations made under the Act.

Providing false or misleading information

Providing false or misleading information may result in suspension or cancellation of a licence.

Privacy information: The personal information provided by you on this application form is being collected by NSW DPI for the purposes of assessing your application and administering the Fisheries Management Act 1994. It may be disclosed to other government agencies for that purpose or a related purpose. The information you provide in this form is given voluntarily to support your application. Information provided by you will be held by NSW DPI and you have the right to request access to and correct this information by contacting the NSW DPI Privacy Officer on (02) 9527 8453.
