

Application for biosecurity registration - Goat Depot Operators Biosecurity (National Livestock Identification System) Regulation 2017

Use this form to apply for or renew your goat depot operator registration.

It is an offence under clause 59 of the Biosecurity (National Livestock Identification System) Regulation 2017 (the Regulation) to operate a goat depot unless registration is approved by the Secretary (or delegate).

The information requested in this form will enable the NSW Department of Primary Industries (the Department) to process your application. Your application must be assessed and registration approved by the Department before you can proceed with the proposed activity.

How to submit this form

→ Email completed form to bfs.admin@dpi.nsw.gov.au

→ Mail completed form to: Goat depot registration
Biosecurity & Food Safety
NSW Department of Primary
Industries PO Box 232

Note the following is required to complete this form:

- a valid property identification code (PIC) for the goat depot, which is accredited by Livestock Production Assurance (LPA);
- a letter from a goat meat processor indicating that the depot is, or will be, a supplier of goats on a commercial basis; and
- an active Goat Depot NLIS database account.

Registration period

A goat depot operator registration issued under the Regulation will be valid for five years.

Fee

No fee will be charged for the registration of a goat depot, at this time.

Conditions of registration

Registered goat depots are required to comply with the Regulation and specified conditions of their registration, including the NLIS Industry Standards for Operating a Goat Depot and User Manual.

Notification

You will be notified of the outcome of the application by email where supplied, or otherwise by post.
