Serpentine leafminer attacks a wide range of horticultural crops. The leafminer larvae feed by tunnelling through the leaf tissue, resulting in long, narrow, serpentine-shaped 'mines' which appear as white or grey lines on leaves. If you find anything suspicious, ring the Exotic Plant Pest Hotline on 1800 084 881.

www.dpi.nsw.gov.au