NATIVE GAME BIRD PORTAL

To complete this diary page correctly you must look up the game duck allocations available for the property you will be hunting.

Allocations for each licensed property can be found by visiting www.dpi.nsw.gov.au/hunting and accessing the Native Game Bird Portal from Online licence holder services. You will need your licence number, security PIN and the landholder's Native Game Bird Management Licence number.

You can also email the wildlife management support team on gamelicensing.southern@dpi.nsw.gov.au or call 02 6051 7772.

STEP 1: BEFORE YOU HUNT

Record the available number of each approved species of game duck for the property you will be hunting. Record the numbers no more than 48 hours in advance of your hunt.

STEP 2: AFTER YOU HUNT

Record the number and type of game duck you harvested while hunting.

You also need to report this information to DPI within 14 days of hunting. You can use the Native Game Bird Portal or email the support team.
