- in the case of a corporation—$2,200,000 and, in the case of a continuing offence, a further penalty of $275,000 for each day the offence continues.

Conditions of group biosecurity prohibited matter permits

The Secretary (or delegate) may impose conditions on a prohibited matter permit at the time of granting or renewing a prohibited matter permit, or at any other time by variation to the prohibited matter permit. Under section 348, 349, and 350 of the Act, the conditions of a prohibited matter permit may include (but are not limited to) conditions for insurance cover, conditions for biosecurity audits, and conditions requiring financial assurances.

Variation of a group biosecurity prohibited matter permit

Under section 344 of the Act, the Secretary (or delegate) may, at any time, vary a prohibited matter permit by notice in writing. The variation includes the imposition of new conditions on a prohibited matter permit, the substitution of a condition, or the omission or amendment of conditions.

An application for variation to this prohibited matter permit can be made by the prohibited matter permit holder in an approved form and must be accompanied by any relevant information or evidence that the decision maker requires.

Refusal to grant / renew a group biosecurity prohibited matter permit

The Secretary (or delegate) may on application or using their own initiative, renew or refuse to renew a prohibited matter permit. Section 346 of the Act sets out matters that the Secretary (or delegate) may consider when making a decision to renew or refuse a prohibited matter permit. The Secretary (or delegate) must give written or oral notice of a decision to renew or refuse to renew a prohibited matter permit. If a notice is provided orally, a written confirmation of the decision must be provided as soon as practicable.

Suspension or cancellation of a group biosecurity prohibited matter permit

The Secretary (or delegate) may, by notice in writing, suspend or cancel a prohibited matter permit if they are satisfied that there are grounds for the suspension or cancellation of the prohibited matter permit. Section 352 of the Act sets out general grounds for suspension or cancellation of a prohibited matter permit. A person may also apply for the suspension or cancellation of a prohibited matter permit.

Rights of appeal

No appeal can be laid against any decision about a prohibited matter permit.
